

INSTITUT SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE

Useful Information

News items we receive on a daily basis

September 8, 1995

SDEB EVENTS

Wednesday, October 4 at noon: The Institute will hold a General Council Meeting. A detailed notice is forthcoming.

Monday, September 18 at noon:

Cree poet Louise Halfe will read from her book Bear Bones & Feathers. A discussion will follow the reading. This event will be held in the Institute's lounge, Room 101.

Tuesday, September 19 at 16:00: A public lecture by Taslima Nasrin, Bangladeshi author and feminist will speak on "The Woman Writer in Muslim Society" in the Hall Bldg, Room 110. This event is co-sponsored with the English Dept. Call 2340 for more information.

Friday, September 22 at 20:00: Margaret Metcalf's one-woman show based on the Actresses Franchise League performances to promote the suffrage cause during the early 1900s. This funny, thought-provoking show, "Playing for Power," will be held at the De Sève Theatre. Admission is free with programme at the door. History professor Dr. Tittler organized this event which is co-sponsored by the Arts & Science Committee on the Status of Women, The History Dept., the Office on the Status of Women and which is facilitated by the British Council.

EVENTS

Religion Lecture

The Department of Religion invites you to hear a lecture by Professor Haim Avni, from the Institute of Contemporary Jewry, Hebrew University on Wednesday, September 13 at 20:30 in the Hall Bldg, Room 110. Professor Avni will speak on "Jewish Immigration to the New World: The Argentine and Canadian Experience." Call 2065 for information.

Liberal Arts College

Wilfrid Laurier Professor Erika Rummel will give a public lecture on "Erasmus as Marriage Counsellor" on Thursday, September 28 at 20:30 in the Hall Bldg, Room 110.

HIV LECTURE SERIES

The first lecture in the this series will be given by Gerald Breitman on Thursday, September 28 at 18:00 in the D.B. Clarke Theatre. Mr. Breitman will speak on the subject "Aids in the Workplace."

Shuffle 95

The Sixth Annual Concordia Shuffle will be held on Friday, September 29 at 13:00. The shuffle is used to raise money for student bursaries and scholarships.

Rector's Reception

The Rector's Reception will be held at 16:00, immediately following the Shuffle 95 festivities.

Lacolle Centre

The Lacolle Centre Fall workshop series listing has been posted on the "academic" board.

McGill Management

The Faculty of Management at McGill with the Japan Society and the Québec-Japan Business Forum invite you to hear Chizuko Ueno on Monday, September 25 from 12:00-14:00. Ms. Ueno is a leading Japanese Feminist and author of the acclaimed Theatre Under the Skirt. Ms. Ueno will speak on the topic "The Survival of Japanese Working Women." Reservations by September 15 by calling 398-4001. Cost: $35 (includes lunch).

Multi-Media Forum

The Harvard club of Montreal and McGill University invite you to a Multi-media Forum, "Creative Links Between Science and the Arts" on Saturday, September 30 from 13:00 - 17:00 at 555 Sherbrooke St. West., Room C-201. Participants are Benoît Roux, Bruce Pennycok and Lynn Hughes. Moderators are John Macnamara and Stéphanie Dudek. Admission is free.

RETREAT

Pigeon Hill Bruideen

Pigeon Hill Bruideen Peacemaking Centre will host a one-day retreat for professionals with psychotherapist Clarissa Chandler on Friday October 27. There will also be workshops on Saturday and Sunday, October 28 & 29th. Call the centre at 248-2524.

JOBS

Carol Mitchell is looking for a student to work in the Reading Room for approximately 6 hours per week for the next twelve weeks. Priority will be given to students with a women's studies or library background. Students should leave their c.v. in Carol's box a.s.a.p.

NEWS OF INTEREST

Research Associate Dr. Barbara Meadowcroft has written the catalogue essay for the Retrospective Exhibition on Liliás Torrance Newton. The exhibit is being held at the Walter Klinkhoff Gallery, 1200 Sherbrooke Street W. from September 9-23.

Rosemary Sullivan has moved her office to N.D.G. She is interested in sharing her office with another psychotherapist. Call Rosemary at 482-2938. Ms. Sullivan would like to share an information table at the Journal of Alternative Therapies Conference in Montreal, September 16-17.